

It's always been my understanding that the federal government can overturn a state action only if it is WEAKER than the federal. We, in New Jersey, have had a reprieve from the invasion of our homes by unwanted salesmen. I, for one, do not want to go back to that constant annoyance and interruption of my relaxation hours! DO NOT overturn the Telephone Consumer Protection Act!